

Kane's property in Gravesend is said to be valued at $500,000.

One condition of affairs which greatly embarrasses the Committee is the fact that McKane never separated his own account from the money of the House. For this reason, says the Committee, McKane's irregularities cannot be brought to light for several weeks.

Besides his ordinary expenses, the Committee has found that McKane kept his own account on what was going on in the House. McKane's irregularities are said to be of a very serious nature, and it is thought he would attempt to cause a miscarriage of justice by one of the House of Commons.

Some of the irregularities which the Committee has found are: McKane expended, but did not account for, a large sum of money in the House of Commons. McKane also expended, but did not account for, a large sum of money in the House of Commons. McKane also expended, but did not account for, a large sum of money in the House of Commons.

AND SHIELDS REFUSED!

Was Offered $500 to Collect $5,000 for Margaret Roddinger.

"Do you want to make $500?" said a voice at Commissioner Shields's shoulder, in his office this morning.

The Commissioner said he could not and the woman left. On Park Row she was afterwards seen to be talking to a young man, whom she wanted to get the money for her.

HOME RULE

NOT DROPPED.

affection. My speech in the House of Commons last night, to have pointed out some doubts as to my own position in regard to Home Rule. Those who have read the speech in a careful manner, the policy of Home Rule will not be less definitely pursued. If there is any doubt on the subject, one policy which the Government has given in this connection is the continuance in its present office of the Right Hon. John Morley, Chief Secretary for Ireland. (Cheers.)

War on the Lords to Continue.

"Our late, illustrious leader, in his last speech delivered in the House of Commons, made a declaration with which the present Government have entirely identified themselves. (Cheers.) The conviction has long been forcing itself upon me that with the democratic suffrage which we now enjoy, a second Chamber, constituted like the House of Lords, is an anomaly. This conviction has been strengthened by the unhappy chapter of accidents which has turned the House of Commons from a body of hereditary lawgivers, more or less divided, into one great Tory organization entirely at the beck and call of a single party leader. (Cheers.)

"When the Tories were in office the power of veto was not exercised, but when the Liberals are in power the veto is exercised. I do not think that the House of Lords is a body which should be treated as a parliament. I do not think that the fact that a man was born in a particular position should deprive him from the higher opportunities of service to his country, and I do not sympathize with the views of a certain department which recently visited the Right Hon. Edward Marjoribanks (Baron Tweedmouth), though I agree that there is great inconvenience when the Premier is not in the House of Commons.

Peerage Not a Stigma Nor Bar.

"I will not go so far as some of my friends. I do not think that the Peerage should be treated as a stigma. #### Harcourt Speaks.

Sir William Vernon Harcourt, Chancellor of the Exchequer, followed. He said that the enemy flattered themselves that the Liberal party was going to drop Home Rule, but the language of the Premier and the presence of the Right Hon. John Morley, as Chief Secretary for Ireland, was the best answer they could give to this supposition.

BOYS ARRAIGNED IN COURT.

Policeman Tierney Bags Eleven Crap Shooters and Ball Players.

Burnett Tackles Bootblacks and Baker Young Vagrants.

Policeman John Tierney, of the East Thirty-fifth street station, appeared in the Yorkville Court this morning, having in his custody eleven boys ranging from nine to thirteen years of age, who had been caught shooting craps, playing ball and generally acting disorderly on the street.

The youngsters were before Justice Voorhis, and some of them promised never to do anything wrong again. Tierney gave them all a bad record, and said that frequent complaints had been made against them. His Honor then fined them $1 each, which was paid by the parents of the children.

For some time past the sidewalk in the vicinity of Chatham Square has been infested by large crowds of Italian bootblacks and newsboys, who played craps, shooting tops and vulgar games.

Benjamin Marks, a real estate owner, of 50 Broadway, has charge of the premises, and the boys have annoyed him greatly. Last week one of them threw a stone through a $200 plate-glass window.

This morning Policeman Tierney, of the East Thirty-fifth street station, made a raid on the game and captured four bootblacks. They were Tony Bucci, Paolo Asella, Joseph Capone, and Antonio Yonell.

When arraigned before Justice Taintor they each had the general disturbance made in the vicinity on the balance of the boys who were there but got away. Justice Taintor lectured them and let them off with a fine of $1 with a promise of $10 if they ever appeared in court.

RIGHTS OF SENATORS.

McDermott Defends Them in His Supreme Court Argument.

TRENTON, N. J., March 12.—Allan McDermott, counsel for President Adair, of the Democratic Senate, concluded his argument before the Supreme Court this morning in the proceedings brought by Gov. Werts to determine the constitutionality of the new constitution.

His argument this morning was mainly on the right of a Senator-elect to participate in the organization of that body. He said that the Constitution gave every member-elect the right to vote on any subject until he had taken the oath of office.

McDermott held that there was no new Constitution, but that the old one was still in force. He said that the new Constitution was only a suggestion, and that the old one was still in force.

PARKHURST MEN IN COURT.

ANDREW'S SCHEME.

He Wants to Spend $1,000,000 More on "Street Cleaning."

Fathers a Bill with Many Very Suggestive Provisions.

Following the principle of spending the most money where it will do the least good, and the least money where it will do the most good, the Mayor's Advisory Committee has prepared a bill to be submitted to the Legislature, conferring on him powers which, in the hands of a schemer, would be a powerful aid for money making and blackmail.

The main provisions of the bill, as given out by Andrews, are as follows: Permitting the temporary employment of extra men, to be taken from the list of men eligible for employment in the City of New York, for the purpose of cleaning the streets, and for the purpose of cleaning the streets, and for the purpose of cleaning the streets.
